

$2,000

Orthodontic Treatment for One Child

Youth receive dental and medical care for procedures not covered by insurance.

Yemin Orde provides care to about 15 students each year who suffer extreme orthodontic problems.

Good oral health is an important element to helping Yemin Orde's youth develop self-esteem. Most of the youth at the Village had either very little or no previous consistent dental care as they lived in extremely impoverished environments or had very limited access to proper dental care..